Extract from a Despatch from the Secretary of State, No. 141, dated 23rd July 1891.

Extract from a Despatch from the Secretary of State, No. 133, dated 8th August 1895

In paragraph 9 of Sir Henry Fowler's Despatch, dated the 11th of April 1895, No. 59, the grant of an additional pension of Rs. 1,000 a year was sanctioned in the case of Heads of Departments, provided that they shall have rendered not less than three years' service in that capacity and have shown during such service special energy and efficiency in the discharge of their duties

4 The cases in which the grant to other officers of a pension of Rs. 6,000 a year is recommended should, therefore, be very exceptional, but in view of the opinions expressed in your Despatch as to * * * * * * services, I sanction the grant to him of a special pension of Rs. 6,000 per annum.

RESOLUTION — The Government of India consider it desirable to circulate, for the information of Local Governments, the instructions quoted in the preamble, issued by the Secretary of State from time to time in regard to the class of cases in which proposals may be entertained for the Rules relating to "commutation of pensions," with table of Post Office Insurances for in this Appendix.

Section 10 —"The Local Government may, with the consent of the holder, order the whole or any part of his pension, or grant of money, or land revenue, to be commuted for a lump sum on such terms as may seem fit

2. Rule 1 is not to be understood as interfering with the rules issued with the sanction of the Government of India for the commutation of any special classes of pension in any Presidency or Province

3 (a) A life pension not exceeding twenty rupees a year may, at any time, on certificate of good health by the Medical Officer (whether commissioned or not) of the district, and provided the pensioner's age does not exceed seventy years, be commuted at the rates shown in the annexed table A.

(b) The pension of a pensioner whose age is more than seventy years cannot be commuted except by special order of the Government of India

4 Before sanctioning, or submitting for the orders of the Government of India, as the case may be, an application for the commutation of a pension, the Local Government shall obtain a report from the Audit Officer as to the amount payable in commutation.

NOTE — [This rule also applies to Political Pensions]

5 If a pensioner whose pension has been commuted dies before receiving the commutation value, this value is payable to his heirs

Rs 250 a month—for an officer of not more than eight years' actual residence in India.

Rs 320 a month—for an officer of more than eight but less than twelve years' actual residence in India

Rs 400 a month—for an officer of twelve or more years' actual residence in India

B.—Madras Civil Fund.

	Rs.
During the first sixteen years' service in all cases	2½ per cent.

At the same rate during the whole further service in the case of married men or widowers with families In the case of unmarried subscribers and widowers without families, the rate is reduced to 1 per cent. after sixteen years' service, to be raised to the higher rate of 2½ per cent. on the remarriage of the subscriber.

The subscriptions to be paid on absentee allowance are reckoned on the rupee entry in the Last-pay Certificate; but in no case is subscription calculated on a smaller leave allowance than Rs. 416⅔, or on a higher leave allowance than Rs 833⅓.

In the cases of subscribers in England who are not in receipt of any absentee allowances and who are allowed by the rules of the Fund to make payments in order to retain their interest in the Fund, the allowance on which the rates are calculated is the allowance from Government last drawn when on furlough or sick leave.

Payments made in England are converted into sterling at the rate of two shillings or one shilling and nine pence the rupee, according as the subscription is paid to the 8 per cent. or 4 per cent Capital of the Fund.

C.—Bombay Civil Fund.

	Rs.
Married members	3 per cent.
Widowers or unmarried members	2 "

For daughters (if upon the Fund)—2 annas or 4 annas per cent.

For sons (if upon the Fund)—2 annas per cent.

A member on furlough and in receipt of an absentee allowance exceeding £500 a year contributes at the rates shown above on the amount in excess of £500 a year. Any member drawing no allowance, or drawing furlough or subsistence allowance of £500 a year or less, is not required to contribute.

Payments of subscriptions in England are converted into sterling money at the rate of exchange annually fixed for the adjustment of financial transactions between the Imperial and Indian Governments

Rules for allowances to members of the Bengal Pilot Service.

1. The following rules apply only to licensed pilots and to Government pilots on the free list. They shall not affect the right of the latter to revert to the salaried list, but such reversion shall be allowed only on the rates of salary in force previous to 28th March 1881. The term pilot in these rules includes a leadsman.

2 Allowances to pilots who may be temporarily employed under orders of Government on special duties will ordinarily be granted at the following rates per mensem :—

	Rs.
Branch Pilots	1,000
Master Pilots	700
Mate Pilots appointed before 1st October 1894	450
Mate Pilots appointed with effect from 1st October 1894	400

Pilots attending criminal or civil courts to give evidence on behalf of Government in matters of which they are cognizant shall not be entitled to allowances at these rates, unless the circumstances of the case are such that the Government consider it right to compensate them specially for their attendance.

4 Detention allowance shall be calculated at the above rates for all periods exceeding 24 hours; the 24 hours to be reckoned from the time at which the vessel was announced to sail, or from the time at which the stoppage necessitating the detention of the pilot off pilotage work began: provided—

(i) That no detention allowance whatever shall be charged when a vessel is prevented from proceeding by stress of weather, insufficiency of water, or inability to procure a tug.

(ii) That detention allowance shall be charged for the entire period (not excepting the first 24 hours) in the following cases:—

(a) When a pilot is detained on board at the request of the master, owner, or agent.

5. Pilots carried off to sea under protest shall receive compensation for the period of their enforced absence from duty at the rate of Rs 10 a day. The allowance of Rs 5 a day now made to leadsmen in these cases shall also be continued.

6. The command allowance for the pilot-brigs is abolished. A branch pilot appointed to the command of a brig shall be entitled to draw pay at the rate specified above, provided that no allowance shall be granted to a pilot who is only in casual and temporary command, and who does not lose his chance of taking a vessel.

7. A pilot, whether acting or temporary in a grade, shall, in respect of these rules, be entitled to the same privileges as if he were permanent in the grade.

8. A leadsman apprentice appointed to an outward-bound vessel shall receive his actual expenses of going on board and landing up to a maximum of Rs 2-8 for each trip.

9. Actual expenses shall be allowed to pilots for joining a ship at Budge-Budge up to the amounts noted below, which are to be taken as maxima:—

	Rs.	a	p.

Formation of Local Fund Pension Funds.

Extract from a letter No 3177, dated 31st August 1971, from the Government of India in the Finance Department, to the Government of Bengal.

4. The references made in your letter to a proposed formation of a Pension Fund by deduction from salaries probably arise from the orders in this Department, No 940, dated 16th June 1870, which contained, as models, certain rules proposed by the Government of Bombay for the constitution of an Educational Pension Fund there.

5 The Government of India, on a reconsideration of the whole subject, is disposed to withdraw the approval which it then expressed of the scheme set forth in these rules. There is an almost entire absence of data on which to estimate the amount of deduction which would be necessary to render such a Fund solvent, such calculations as can be made render it extremely doubtful whether five per cent is nearly enough to cover the contingent charge, and it is of course out of the question to guarantee from Imperial Revenues the solvency of any such Fund. A pension Fund formed by deduction from salary is, perhaps, objectionable also on another ground, namely, that it to a certain extent, unnecessarily fetters the hands of the employer.

6. In the case, therefore of Local Funds which will, beyond a doubt, be able, without embarrassment, to meet the pensionary claims of employés it seems to the Government of India that it would be best, should the Local Government think proper to grant to the employés a right to pension to leave the pensionary claims to be met when they arise And in the case of Local Funds regarding whose position there is not the same absence of doubt, it would appear to be the wiser course to abstain from making any absolute promise of pension The ability of such funds to provide any pensions which, on special grounds, it may be deemed desirable to grant, can be more easily determined when the claim is presented for consideration than it can be at a time antecedent, by many years, to the actual accrual of the charge

7 It might even be a matter for the consideration of the Local Government whether, considering the peculiar constitution of Local Funds, it would not be well, specially in the case of such as are of uncertain solvency or stability, to credit to a separate account the capital value of any pension granted. The necessity of providing at once the entire value of a pension, instead of throwing the charge forward upon future years, would, perhaps, afford a useful check against indiscriminate recommendations by those who have the management of the funds.
